Benediction

Pastor: As we go out from here today...

Congregation: May the Holy Spirit's sweeping wind carry us out into the world, toward those who long for community and hope. May the crackling fire of your presence spark in us a passion for fulfilling your purposes in the world. May we continually breathe in your blessing of new and abundant life, breathing out that healing and comfort to all we meet.

Pastor: May it be so.

Postlude

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator Blest,
Mark Stern

The flowers today are given by the Worship Ministry in honor of the countless dedicated individuals who worked so hard to make our Worship services so deeply meaningful throughout the season of Lent and Eastertide.

Announcements

Please remain after worship for the regularly scheduled Quarterly Church Conference. The budget will be presented and the nominating committee will be presenting their report.

Please visit the website and register your children, grandchildren and friends for Vacation Bible School, June 3-7. The VBS mission project will be for the Helping Hand Home for Children. See your TCHP emails for more info. Abby will need adults and youth volunteers so please let her know if you are able to help this year.

Spring Food Drive is underway for Micah 6 and the Baptist Community Center Mission. There is a list of needed items noted in the Wednesday email and a printed list is located on the table in the Narthex. Thank you for considering donating to the special push to try to bring food justice to our neighbors.

Youth end of school year celebration will be May 29th. Look out Schlitterbahn here they come. See Masyn for more information.

Another opportunity to volunteer would be to train on the sound system. Sofia and Claire have it covered most Sundays but we need another person to train to help cover if either of them are out or not able to cover a special service or program.

STAY INFORMED: Please contact the church office if you are not receiving the emails that are sent out on Wednesdays and Fridays. These emails include the Touch List, announcements and worship information.
